

CONSCIOUS EARTH ALLIANCE

ONLINE CONFERENCE - 27-28 MARCH / 3-4 APRIL 2021

Without a doubt, the era of materialistic domination of society is near an end.

The new era is fast approaching.

The first rays of humanity's bright new dawn are already starting to illuminate the eastern horizon

Conscious Earth Alliance represents a united front for all Moralists, providing an integrated approach to social change through interfacing dynamics of self development, new social outlook, socio-economic strategies and ecological awareness, to empower people, culture and society thriving in a Neo Humanistic flow, which will ensure Personal and Universal Sovereignty.

We are going through the greatest era of human existence.
We are participating in the spiritual evolution not just of humanity but of the planet itself, going through a spiritual ascension.

We are in transition from 3D to 5D Consciousness.
We earned the right to be here in this transition each one of us.

The chaos we are at present witnessing in society, and the massive disruption we are experiencing at every level, there is a reason for it.

This chaos, this disruption is indicative of a turning point.
Change is coming.

An awakened, conscious planetary movement is now taking place.
When we awaken to the power within us all and join the collective voice we are helping to accelerate going from the dark storm of fear, scarcity and survival, to the new harbinger of light, liberty and abundance.

We are, globally, on the verge of a major renaissance, redefining civilisation itself as it was meant to be, the enlightened civilisation.

DAY 1 - Saturday 27 March

9-10 AM - CET

RAVI-SHEKHAR

Ravi-Shekhar has a background in yoga, meditation, Eastern mysticism and social activism. He believes humanity is moving through an historic shift of consciousness that is manifesting as polarisation between progressive and regressive forces.

“An integrated approach to Social Transformation.”

Lecture with Q&A

In his presentation he explores the Progress Triangle that identifies three dimensions needed for effective social development and transformation.

An ego-dominated consciousness, is no longer an evolutionary option for humanity. Unity amongst progressive people and groups, is crucial at this time. For such unity to happen a more expansive, integrated approach to social change is required. He will be looking at the interrelated dynamics of personal conscious development, the overcoming of socio-political sentiments and dogmas culminating in a society based on universal welfare, and a new socio-political-economic paradigm, to create inter-related global and regional platforms of sovereign governance and socio-cultural planetary transformation.

10-11 AM - CET

Yogesh is a Gestalt Psychotherapist and a Life Wellness Coach, Co-Founder of “Living Total Wellness” Coaching system. He is skilled in group work and Group Therapy Processes.

“Live Group Process: Overcoming Fear and Hopelessness at a time of uncertainty and great change”

Feel and step back before rationalising and/or looking for solutions. The experience of inner depth reaches each one of us in the group, feeling one another beautifully moving into our hearts. The experience feels more real, closer to reality than just being in our mind or in the head. We discover ourselves in another way, something that maybe we never had a chance to express and maybe did not even know about, and it is something we can bring with us and remember forever. The group provides a wonderful support and a way to bond even more, through our true expression of feeling and trust.

A great group experience that can bring each one of us in motion at a deeper level.

DIDI ANANDA SUBHASHISA

Didi is a Tantra Yoga Nun, dedicated to the emancipation and liberation of women, discovering true purpose and the ultimate goal of existence.

'Women's role in the age of transition, and how Women and Men can synergise their strengths through coordinated cooperation”

Workshop

Intrinsic to our civilisation is the psychology of “power-over “ (the power that stronger people exert over weaker creatures), which has developed into the destructive ideology underlying the existential crisis that humanity is facing.

Woman was the first casualty of this ideology.

Prior to that, she had occupied the central position in the sphere of human affairs as the giver and nurturer of life and as the maker of the community. Her fall opened the path to the unchecked exploitation and dispossession of everyone else.

Since ages, Woman has been struggling to cross the barrier of insolent power. Finally, in these auspicious times more and more conscious women are emerging, radiant with a new enhanced humanity. Eager to reclaim their central role in the department of Life, they are empowering themselves to establish rhythm and harmony into the human and non-human worlds.

At the same time, the conscious men of today who are moving forward towards liberation are also breaking free of the old chains of distorted manhood, eager to find their own authentic self.

When these awakened women and men establish themselves in their respective dimensions and finally join hands to combine their strengths, they will generate the full spectrum of human power, something unknown to present-day humankind. This will be an exalted state of coordinated cooperation that will synergise their individual and collective lives and make them invincible in their stand up for dharma

DAN WINTER

Dan Winter's background spans a broad spectrum of disciplines from mechanics, mathematics, sacred geometry to physics and the metaphysics of bliss. He pursued graduate studies in psychophysiology, and the origins of languages, as well as trained in the Gurdjieff school at Claymont, and much much more. Dan is a prolific writer and much of his work is available on the Internet.

“The Physics of Kundalini” see goldenmean.info/kundalini

Presentation with Q & A

Dan recommends that entering the stillness is a good way to get charge density. He recommends meditation should usually be preceded by posture work and the kinesthetics, the yoga, the sacred circle dance, the Eurythmy, the Tai Chi, the sacred gymnastic, the movement for bliss, so that the meditation doesn't become stuck in the head.

“In terms of meditation, my personal experiences of intense kundalini experiences was brought on by the Gurdjieff sacred gymnastic and the breath work to some extent. The essence of meditation is simple, you need to have a very long wave that can then embed short waves. To embed yourself in a long wave is the function of ritual and meditation. So that process of getting yourself phase aligned with very long waves is sometimes called rapt, or rapture, or raptor, where you have a vice like sort of grip that you feel electrically when you get really still. And that is a way to commune with the infinite.

The risk is that if you do that communion without coming back and bringing it into the world which is called grounding, and grounding is access to a fractal for psychologists or electricians. That if you come back without finally delivering that information you've picked up by entering the stillness, it becomes fractionating, that the only way you avoid the hive mind is when you come back and individuate what you've learned and find a way to share it practically.

11AM - CET

Joachim Gerlach?????

12-1 PM

MIRAKLE KING.

Workshop

After working on the greater Unified Earth vision in the past couple of years, MiraKle King recently talked about his personal, 'Heroic Spinal Resurrection' story for the first time in public.
